MONDAY 12TH JANUARY 2026

There was a better show of store hoggs forward at Monday's sale following the wintery conditions of previous weeks, which had limited entries and movement. Trade improved on the day, with buyers once again keen to secure the best-quality sorts.

The best clean hoggs were dearer again, reflecting strong competition and continued demand for well-bred, short-keep types. In contrast, longer-term hoggs met a stand-on trade, with buyers remaining selective.

Recent weather conditions have made buyers slightly more cautious, particularly where hoggs appeared leaner or less forward, and these types were harder to place. Nevertheless, all hoggs were sold, with quality remaining the key driver of trade. Good entry of store hoggs required again next week.
