Another respectable entry for the time of year as we head into February, with trade showing a notable lift on the week. Buyer confidence was much improved, resulting in a dearer trade across the board, particularly for the stronger, well-bred hoggs.

Best quality, well-fleshed sorts were keenly competed for, while longer-term hoggs also met a more positive reception, reflecting improved confidence amongst buyers. Overall, a pleasing sale with plenty of demand in attendance and vendors rewarded accordingly.
