MONDAY 9TH FEBRUARY 2026

Another larger than expected entry forward this week, with several vendors now opting to clear out in light of the continued wet weather and the need to prioritise feed supplies for other classes of stock. The challenging ground conditions are certainly influencing marketing decisions.

Trade remained firm throughout, with competition evident across all types. The best-bred, well-grown hoggs met the strongest demand, attracting keen bidding ringside and achieving a notable premium.

Buyers continue to show confidence in quality, forward hoggs that will go on and do well.

Longer-term hoggs also met a solid trade on the day. Whilst perhaps not reaching the heights of the strongest pens, they remain a very saleable article, with plenty of interest from grazing and finishing buyers alike.

Overall, a pleasing trade considering the seasonal pressures, with hoggs looking well sold from start to finish.
